FLYING CIRCUS WILL BE STAGED IN VERNON SOON

Lieut. Brewer Who Was Understudy of Ed Lorette Will Jump from Parachute at 7000 Feet and May Make Double Jump

A flying fair featuring some of the most sensational stunts ever done from airplanes will be staged in Vernon in connection with a trades day January 19. The exact date will be named within the next two days.

Lieut. Eugene Brewer, who was an understudy of Ed Lorette, killed here while making a sensational parachute leap, will be one of the main stunt flyers of the fair. He was here and made arrangements for the meet after securing the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce and others who are interested in the stunt. Daredevil Dean, the 16-year-old boy who is declared to be one of the most sensational aerial performers in America, will be with the flying circus. He and Brewer will do the stunts. They will hang by their teeth, will hang by their feet, will walk the wings and will do other death-defying stunts while the planes are thousands of feet from the earth. They will do parachute jumping from thousands of feet and if the weather permits, they will do double parachute jumping. Lieutenant Brock will come here as a pilot to drive the planes while the stunts are being done. In addition to doing stunts the city will be bombarded from the air.

In conjunction with the flying circus there will be a trades day and hundreds of people are expected to come into Vernon for the event. The men performing the circus are known all over the nation as among the most daring and their stunts have attracted attention from all parts of the country.

Donning the vestments of his office and donning his academic robes as Doctor of Theology, Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, one of the leading Episcopal ministers of America, astounded his hearers in St. Bartholomew's Church, in New York City, by declaring he did not believe in the Virgin Birth of Christ or His bodily resurrection after crucifixion. He added that he would welcome a heresy charge against him by Bishop Manning. St. Bartholomew's is one of the wealthiest congregations and most exclusive churches in the East, numbering leaders of the financial and social world among its parishioners.

GOODS TAKEN IN ROBBERY FOUND

SHERIFF OF WISE COUNTY
RECOVERS TOLBERT STORE
MERCHANDISE

In December 1922 the store of G. L. Rose at Tolbert was robbed of groceries and clothing valued at about $250. Very little trace of the robbery was found and officers were unable to apprehend anyone in connection with the case at the time. But cards giving descriptions of the goods taken from the store were sent broadcast from the Sheriff's office to officers all over the state and in Oklahoma.

This week Sheriff Frank Edmondson received word from Sheriff Workman of Wise County, at Decatur, that he thought he had recovered some of the stolen articles from the store and had a man and woman under arrest. The sheriff, accompanied by Mr. Rose, went to Decatur and Mr. Rose identified several articles of clothing as those taken from his store.

It developed that a man and woman had been arrested on a burglary charge at Decatur and the goods recovered. For many months the sheriff there was unable to identify the goods or find where they came from and they were given to inmates of the county house where the clothing is still being worn. But the woman arrested with the man is said to have fallen out with him and confessed that the goods were taken from a store in a small town near Vernon and then Sheriff Workman dug up the records and found the card from Vernon describing the goods. It was then he notified officers here.

The man and woman are being held at Decatur and will be brought here in case they are not convicted there.

EAST VERNON TO STAGE ANOTHER BIG PLAY

Following the success of "Farm Folks," the four act play presented before the holiday season, the East Vernon Dramatic Club announces that they are producing another play entitled "A Little Clodhopper." The play is from the pen of Walter Ben Hare, well known American dramatist, and is said to be a very effective comedy drama of American life.

Thelma Murray and Cecil White, who played the comedy parts in "Farm Folks," are to appear again in "A Little Clodhopper." The cast will also include Ben Smith, Mrs. Charlie Myers, Ernest Baker, and other capable players.

Just when and where the play will be presented first, and a complete cast and synopsis of the play will be announced later.

WELFARE DRIVE TO BE LAUNCHED HERE SATURDAY

Association Meets and Many Cases of Suffering Among Poor Reported Showing Urgent Need of Money and Clothing

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Welfare Board last night, officers were elected for the coming year and chairmen of committees were appointed to conduct the drive for funds tomorrow. A total of $1250 must be raised to carry on the work among the poor here, it is said, and every effort will be made to raise that amount Saturday.

Dr. E. L. Moore, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was re-elected chairman; J. D. Key, was elected Vice Chairman, Miss Esth or Swartwood was re-elected Secretary, Mrs. L. E. McCurdy, Assistant Secretary and J. V. Townsend, re-elected treasurer.

Details for the drive were worked out at the meeting. Dr. Moore reported on conditions here and told of many cases here in which women and children have been found suffering and will continue if the welfare funds run out. He told of one case where a father with three motherless little children is slowly dying and said the Welfare funds are providing bare necessities of life for the children.

Miss Swartwood also told of cases where suffering has been found and to those who have not taken the time or trouble to go into the abodes of the poor in Vernon, the accounts given last night by those who are devoting many hours of their time without monetary reward in doing a duty for the community would more than likely dig much deeper in their pocket books to help if they could have heard of the cases here.

Chairmen of the various committees who will be out tomorrow to solicit money, groceries and clothing, or fuel, are: Mrs. L. E. McCurdy and Miss Swartwood for clothing, M. C. Culbertson, P. M. McKinley, R. M. Fielder, Joe Sumner, J. V. Townsend, J. W. Brock, Jr., J. D. Key, Solon Sewell and Dr. E. L. Moore.

BANK DEPOSITS SHOW BIG GAIN

MORE THAN $300,000 OVER DEPOSITS OF LAST CALL IN 1922

Statement of condition of Vernon banks for the condition as of December 31, in answer to the Government call, shows a gain of well over $300,000 as compared to the last call of 1922. This increase is despite the fact that several thousand more bales of cotton were ginned up to the same date last year than have been ginned so far this year. But the price of cotton this year has more than made up for the difference and the county, as a whole, is said to be in splendid condition.

Statement of all four banks in deposits for the last call in 1922 and the last call in 1923 follows:

POLL TAX TIME HERE WITH FEW PAYMENTS MADE

Only 1339 Have Paid So Far With National Election on and But 28 Days More in Which to Qualify as Full Fledged Citizens

With but 28 days more in which poll taxes can be paid only 1339 have been paid in the office of Mrs. C. M. Blair, tax collector up until 10 o'clock today with 10 exemptions issued, making a total of 1349 voters who have qualified this year. Last year there were 3631 poll taxes paid and 54 exemptions issued, making a total of 3685 voters who qualified.

Mrs. Blair is very anxious that voters come in at once and pay their poll taxes as the law allows no extension of time in the payment and those who do not pay before the first day of February will simply be disqualified as voters. And this is in the face of the national election and various other elections this year.

Mrs. Blair said that while her office will do all it can, that with automobile licenses to issue and so many receipts to write out that the office has only a certain capacity and all taxes can not be paid on the last day, so people will do well to come in as soon as possible and pay their poll tax.

Poll tax payments to date, by voting precincts, follow:

Wheat Fields in Need of Sunshine Farmers Assert

The sunshine of the last two days is just what wheat crops need, according to farmers. The wheat did not do any good during the recent bad weather and most of the farmers who were grazing their wheat had to take the stock off to let the wheat hold its own.

If clear weather and plenty of sunshine prevails for the next week, the wheat will get a good start again and can then be used for winter grazing.

Warning Issued to Auto Owners to Pay License

A total of 1770 motor vehicles had been registered at the office of the County Tax Collector up until 11 o'clock today. That number is just a fraction over half of the 3300 which were registered last year and most of which, with some new ones, must be registered before January 17.

Mrs. Blair has issued a statement requesting that all persons come in and have their cars registered as soon as possible, as poll taxes have to be paid also and with both matters going on at once, only a certain number can be accommodated each day, so some may be penalized for not registering.

SCHOOL TO OPEN MONDAY WITH ALL IN ATTENDANCE

Compulsory Education Law Will Bring in Many More Pupils Than Attended Before Christmas and Will Be Enforced

The Vernon City Schools re-open Monday, January 7, after a period of two weeks holiday. With the opening of the schools the compulsory education period also opens which compels all children under 14 years of age to attend school.

Supt. E. L. Dohoney said yesterday preparations have been made to seat a large number of pupils in addition to the number who attended before Christmas. There are those who put off until after Christmas to attend and in addition there are many who are brought in by the compulsory law.

There is going to be no leniency this year in the enforcement of the compulsory law, according to the school officials. The school census will be gone over and every child in the scholastic age will be checked up. Those who have been attending will be checked off and those who have not will be checked with the new list after Christmas. By this method the authorities can ascertain how many have not started, then the truant officer will be sent for them. After all on the school census are brought in the officer will look into the cases of those from other places who have moved here since the census was taken.

School officials say that while they do not want to be hard on anybody, the law compelling children to attend school was passed for the purpose of giving them a chance to make their way in life and to raise the standard of citizenship and it will be enforced to the letter.

ALASKA DULL FOR TOURISTS

ARMY OFFICER'S DAUGHTER TELLS OF LIFE IN NORTH-ERN POSSESSION

Austin, Jan. 3.—Miss Mary Springall, of San Antonio, who is a freshman in the University of Texas, is the daughter of an army officer, and has lived for the past two years in Sangway in southern Alaska.

Life in Alaska is intensely interesting, especially at an army post, Miss Springall said. "One experiences it without wanting to go back. Tourists are often disappointed in the country for there is very little progress and the towns consist for the most part in little shacks. The largest town has only 15,000 inhabitants.

"The natives in southern Alaska are quite different from those in the northern part. They are not Eskimos but Indians. The degree of civilization is low. They are seldom friendly with the white man. Their religious beliefs are weird and superstitious. Missionary work is done among them but the fruits are meager. The Presbyterians are probably the most zealous. The Catholic missions rank second. There are also Baptist and Methodist workers.

"We had to take a boat across a bay to get to school. The high school consisted in eight pupils and one instructor, a professor from Brown University, who taught everything."

Miss Springall spoke of President Harding's visit.

"It caused much excitement," she said. "He brought the Marine Band and there was a big chance. There was a dance every week or so often as a boat came in. Other forms of amusement were bear hunting, moose hunting, and prairie hunting. The movies were usually three or four years old before they came there and Pathe News showed war pictures last summer. Victrola records were the only new things we could get.

"The climate is moderate in the summer and very cold in the winter. In the summer the wild flowers and ferns are more beautiful than anywhere in the United States. The nights are short. It gets dark about midnight and dawn breaks about one o'clock. This is during the summer months only.

"The natives dress in furs during the winter and very much like Mexican ponchos during the summer. The white man dresses like the people in the United States. In the winter, however, they wear parkies. These are long canvas coats with hoods. They come about to the knees and are tied around the waist."

PAULINE GARON PLAYS IN "YOU CAN'T FOOL YOUR WIFE" AT VERNON

The girl who has won the title of "The Screen's Sweetest Flapper," is coming to the Vernon Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Slim, blonde, five feet one and one-half inches tall, Pauline Garon, the latest meter of the films who has sprung into particular fame since her brilliant performance in "Adam's Rib," Cecil DeMille's big Paramount picture, and "You Can't Fool Your Wife," a George Melford production, for Paramount, which comes to the Vernon Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Little Miss Garon is a French Canadian. She didn't learn to talk English until she was ten and still retains a decided but very pleasing French accent. She was born in Montreal, Canada, one September 29, and is of combined French and Irish parentage. Her father was Pierre, her mother Victoria. Her father was employed in the Postal service and later entered the insurance business at which he attained considerable success.

Pauline was sent to the Sacred Heart Convent in Montreal where she remained under strict discipline for seven and one-half years. Always, however, there was an urge for expression, a desire to pour out the vivacity, the unquenchable enthusiasm, the "pep" to express it in a word, that is so distinctive by part and parcel of this new whirlwind of the cinema.

So one bright day she ran away from home. No reason at all. She just wanted to see a bit of the world and her spirit didn't reckon of the difficulties attendant on a young girl traveling alone. Anyhow that has never bothered her as the diminutive Garon is a raging

THREE AGES IS LAUGH COMEDY

PICTURE BASED ON HISTORY IS REAL FEATURE FOR BUSTER KEATON

Buster Keaton is at the Pictorium today on the last run of his first feature six reel picture, "Three Ages." It is a scream. It takes the audience through history from ancient down through the ages to modern times.

The picture is really a comedy with something behind it. It is far more than the ordinary slapstick stuff that often worries you. The laughs there in plain view where everybody will get them.

Saturday, Dustin Farnum will be at the Pictorium in "Three Who Paid." It is a good Farnum picture and will be followed by a comedy, Wm. Duncan in "The Steel Trail," will also be a Saturday run.

When it comes to a thrill a minute and hair raising interest "Legally Dead," which comes to the Pictorium Monday and Tuesday has everything it takes to make such a picture. It is intensely interesting from the standpoint of a plot and has such actors as Milton Sills, Claire Adams, Edwin Starvis, Margaret Campbell, Faye O'Neill and many others of note in the cast.

Mrs. J. A. Walker Seeks Re-election as District Clerk

To the Voters of Wilbarger County: In announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of District Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, I wish to state that I am now serving my first term in the office, having been elected in the general election, following the death of my father, who was then District Clerk and had been re-nominated in the July primaries in 1922.

My experience in the office, I believe, qualifies me for the position, and I need, the employment. I have in the past devoted my entire time to the office and during sessions of Court has employed extra help in order to take care of the work of the office promptly and efficiently when assistance was needed. This policy will be continued in the future. In the event of my election, I invite the most careful investigation into my fitness and worthiness for the office sought and will appreciate the support of all those who believe I am qualified for the place.

WAR IS OFF FOR PRESENT

FOOTBALL TEAMS STILL HURL
DEFIANCE AND MAKE MANY CHARGES

The gigantic gridiron struggle between the Elk and Shrine clubs is postponed again. Weather which would dishearten any spectator from attending a football game came up during last night and both teams decided not to play, but both have declared they are keeping their teams in training and will be ready on the first pretty day to stage the titanic struggle compared to which the world war will show as a mere skirmish.

When Roy Russell, commander of the Elk team, was not seen on the streets at 5 o'clock this morning, Commodore S. P. Ingram of the Shrine issued the following battle song:

"Editor: Well it looks like the weather man has won again. Not that my team of fighting Shrine men are not willing to do battle, but I am afraid there would not be any spectators. My noble athletes would cross the frozen north, barefoot and clad in a bathing suit to meet these Elks, but I have been asked my many who would attend this game to postpone it until a more pleasant day. It seems there are many from other towns and states who wish to see this classic, and their requests for postponement will not fall on dumb ears. Therefore you will please announce in the columns of your good paper that this football game will not be played until baseball weather prevails. I understand the challenger, Grand Gordin of the Elks, one of C. Russell, can not be located. He is not at his place of abode, business, and it is our understanding no one knows when he left, where he went or why. Answering the queries of many who are approached me about this matter, it is my opinion his ribs and followers were afraid it would be a cold blustery day, and I lay odds he will show up tomorrow, very much disappointed, if the game could not be played. There is but one conclusion. There are very few cold days in August, and I am going to keep my men in training until our ambitions are realized." S. P. Ingram.

Just a few minutes after Mr. Ingram had turned in his Phillips, Commander Russell and Captain Walter McCaleb of the Elk team strode into the Record office wiping their brows. "Whew," said Mr. Russell, "it is hot. We have just come in from our morning walk. We went to Wichita Falls and walked back from there, leaving just after breakfast. Our team is in fine shape and when we walk home to Quannah and back by noon, they will be ready to get on the field today." When told the game had been postponed, Mr. Russell said that of course if the fans wanted it postponed, it is all O. K. with him. "But I suspect," he said, "that some guy in charge of certain team I know of and who is afraid his players will get their noses chilly, in fact is afraid of our team under any condition, had this game postponed while I was out exercising my team."

MILLIONTH CAR WAS PRODUCED IN SUMMER

Announcement by President John N. Willys of the Willys-Overland Company of the production of more than 200,000 cars on December 15, capped the climax of the most remarkable year that Willys-Overland has had, a year replete with sensational success that has returned this organization to its place in the forefront among the leaders of the motor car industry.

Mr. Willys coupled this announcement with the statement that Willys-Overland expects to break every one of its 1923 records in 1924 with a production which at present indicates a probable sale of 300,000 cars.

Willys-Overland created the first of its series of unusual announcements in 1923 with the appearance of its new Willys-Knight Coupe-Sedan at the New York show.

BRITISH ACE TO FLY HERE

CAPTAIN YEREX COMING TO-MORROW AND WILL RE-
MAIN OVER SUNDAY

Tomorrow and Sunday, Capt. Lowell Yerex, famous British Ace during the World War and now one of the best known commercial aviators in this country, will do stunt flying over Vernon. Robert H. Gray, manager for Capt. Yerex and himself a former British flyer of note, was here yesterday and made arrangements for the flights in which they will advertise Texas Company products.

Captain Yerex will take up passengers at times during his flights here. He has taken up a total of 10,088 passengers during his commercial flying career, according to the report of his record. He is a hero of many flights in the great war when he was in a 210 Squadron Royal Air Forces. He is said to have 12 enemy planes to his credit, but was captured by the Germans 30 miles behind their lines when he was pursued by an entire squadron of their planes. He escaped later by diving through the window of a train on which he was a prisoner while the train was going at 40 miles an hour, but was later recaptured and held prisoner until the end of the war.

Woman Who Saw Many Horrors Is Back from East

Dallas, January 3.—Miss Margie Lin Caldwell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. John H. Caldwell of 630 Locust Street, Bristol, Tenn., and for two years a relief worker in the Near East is expected to arrive here today to join H. T. McBroom in the state work of the Near East Relief, according to announcement of Charles L. Sanger, State Chairman.

During her two years in the Near East Miss Caldwell witnessed at first hand many of the sufferings and hardships imposed on the Armenian and Greek populations of the Turkish Empire, and as a Near East Relief worker helped to alleviate the distress among the women and children. While stationed at Rodosto in Thrace she had charge of the farm colony established there for refugees from Asia Minor. This colony became so successful that it was eventually turned over to the Greek Government and Miss Caldwell went to Constantinople.

Three hundred refugees from Constantinople were transferred to the Rodosto farm colony and 6,000 acres allotted to them for rehabilitation.

"The refugees went to work on rations," Miss Caldwell said, in describing the success of the experiment. "They built their own cottages, and under the direction of American relief workers and with the help of American agricultural implements furnished by the Near East Relief are now on a self-supporting basis leaving the thousands of orphan children who must be supported by outside help until they are old enough to earn their own living."

The result of the constructive relief program is highly appreciated.

Relieves Gas Pressure on Heart

Doctors diagnosed my case as enlargement of the heart, with excess water around the heart and high blood pressure. I was unable to sleep at night and had "night sweats." My stomach would swell and the pressure on my heart and lungs would become so great that I could hardly breathe. I was in the above condition five months and part of the time was in the hospital.

I was advised to take FERRASAL and from the first dose got relief. Gas no longer forms and I sleep all night without disagreeable "night sweats." I am feeling fine and have returned to my work—cement contracting.

A. L. PAUL, 3904 Swiss Ave., Dallas, Texas. Excess acid causes the food to ferment in the stomach and allimentary tract. This spoiled food generates gas which presses against the heart and diaphragm, often causing great suffering. Many people have died suddenly when only in middle life because the heart failed to stand the strain of gas pressure.

FERRASAL removes the cause—excess acid—by neutralizing it in the stomach and expelling it from the system. Don't demand too much of your overworked heart. Take FERRASAL regularly night and morning for a month. It will stop gas from forming and improve your general health or your money refunded.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The Record, will be gladly corrected when called to the attention of the editor.

IT DOES PAY TO ADVERTISE.

Some days ago The Record editor threw out a gentle hint, a kind of suggestion, as it were, intimating that an offering of fresh pork from some subscriber would be followed by a more or less praiseworthy write-up of the person who presented said fresh pork, spare ribs, backbone or sausage.

One appreciative and sympathetic reader brought in a consignment of fresh pork from a recent killing a few days after the publication of the editor's intimation. The editor was out of the office when this well-wishing subscriber brought in his meat and the advertising solicitor appropriated the said pork to his own use and benefit without the knowledge or consent of the said editor, the result of this being that the editor failed to get the mess of fresh pork and the appreciative subscriber failed to get his expected write-up.

It is well to understand that the advertising solicitor solicits advertising and is not permitted to write pieces for the editorial column. This explanation is being printed for the benefit of the aforesaid appreciative subscriber in order that he will understand why he failed to see his name appear as one of the "most prominent and successful farmers of our county," with the further statement that if he wants to see himself written up he will have to be more careful about who receives the fresh pork. It available him nothing to give it to an advertising man, or any other person connected with The Record, except the editor himself.

But to get back to the original and deal with an instance of unbridled liberality. Mr. Marshall, who is one of the prominent and active managers of the "Twink" & Sharp hog ranch, located at Vernon on the paved road, is in a liberal helping hand to the editor and his staff.

One of the most striking of the company's ads is headed, "Sawdust and Gasoline." It goes on to say:

"We know a farmer who is extremely particular about the food he gives his livestock, for they are all thoroughly proud of them. He insists on brands of feed that will keep them in excellent physical condition, fit and vigorous for the work he expects of them."

"His car is a thoroughbred, too, of a make that has international respect and admiration. And yet, when it comes to buy gas or oil for that car, he merely stops at a filling station—any filling station you understand—and says, 'Filler up.' It has never occurred to him that the mechanism of his car is delicate and even fastidious and that mongrel oils and gas are seldom of a desirable quality. And when his car coughs and complains he clenches his fist and swears. 'Fuddy, but it's! The thought of feeding sawdust to his favorite horse would almost induce apoplexy. Why shouldn't he feel the same way about the gas that goes into his favorite car?'"

ALL THE FINANCIAL ILLS OF THE WORLD CAN BE DESCRIBED IN ONE WORD

"Thriftlessness"

THE CURE, ALSO, CAN BE SUGGESTED IN ONE WORD

"THRIFT"

Each man has his own "thrift problems!"

To some it means spend more, but spend more wisely:

To some it means more diversification in crops:

To some it means more safety in investments:

To some it means more cautious buying and selling.

And this bank stands ready to serve each and every class. More than that, we are willing and anxious, because it means a more prosperous county, therefore a more prosperous

ACTIVITY SHOWS REAL PROGRESS

NEW YEAR STARTS WITH GEN-ERAL CONDITION UN-
USUALLY GOOD

Reports from all over the United States and more especially from every section of Texas, shows less unemployment during the present winter than for a long time. In Wilbarger county the cotton fields have been furnishing work for many up till right recently and with some building going on that also has helped.

In all Texas there has been more industrial activity than for many years at this time of the year. Road building is in progress in scores of counties, new manufacturing plants are under construction at other places and a general review shows activity all over the state.

Following are a few of the big projects under way in the state and some of the general conditions:

Cleburne—Four-story hotel costing approximately $100,000 to be erected.

Cotton crop of Texas for 1923 worth more than entire wheat crop of United States.

Austin—$300,000 laboratory building to be erected for medical department of University of Texas.

Fort Worth—Local building permits issued during past week totaled $230,180.

Jacksonville—New buildings being erected and old structures remodeled throughout business section.

Nacoma—Construction of new bridge over Red river to start immediately.

Houston—First 11 months of 1923 show 38 per cent increase over same period of 1922, in number of arrivals and departures of vessels in local port.

Rule—19,140 bales cotton ginned in Haskell county to date this season.

Rio Grande City—Definite steps taken to build 22-mile railroad from this city to San Pordocoy, also extension to Texas and Mexico Railroad near Mirando City.

Grass is very good in most sections of Texas with more range per head of livestock than in recent years at this time. There is abundant wheat, oat and rye pasture, according to government report.

Nabens—Rio Grande review is newspaper published by Barnett O'Bryan and Milton G. Rattrey.

Sierra Blanca—Burton-Lingo Lumber Company building addition to present lumber yards.

Greenville—New ornamental stone plant begins operation.

The department of agriculture is to investigate the methods of wrapping cotton, with the purpose of decreasing the loss and saving the producers the money loss they suffer because cotton is insufficiently protected from the weather. At the same time there should be investigation of the treatment given to baled cotton and a preventative found for leaving baled cotton exposed and in the mud. It is said that several million dollars of value are destroyed annually by bad baling and exposure, most of which could be saved if a systematic effort were made to change and improve the handling methods.
